FROM THE PRESIDENT

By James Anzaldi, Mayor, Clifton

As you scrutinize your municipal and school budgets keep in mind that education should not stop after graduation.

The League web site is an excellent starting point for all you municipal staff information needs. On the Calendar of Events you can find seminars on economics, environment, staffing, ethics, management and more.

In the list of publications you can find books, surveys, directories, and white papers that help you maintain your municipal reference library.

The web site home page hosts video clips explaining hot topics and many resource centers covering the wide range of municipal issues.

There are classified ads and a page with list of useful links to other sites.

There is even a page containing all the quarterly reports on League activities, to help you answer the question "What has the League done for me lately?"

And, you can now follow the League on Twitter at <http://twitter.com/njlofm>.

The League encourages all local officials to access the resources of the League!

FUTURE MUNICIPAL LEADERS SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION DEADLINE

-Contact Michael Darcy ext. 116

Scholarship Committee Chairman Mayor Chuck Chiarello of Buena Vista Township and Scholarship Judge Mayor Dan Coranoto of Hampton Twp., League 2nd Vice President have been busy reviewing submissions from mayors participating in the annual Future Municipal Leaders Scholarship Competition. Mayors from across the state made the competition a great success as they submitted excellent entries from high school juniors and seniors.

The top three winners will be determined and announced in early May. See a full list of participating mayors attached here. The full text of the three winning essays will appear in the October issue of the League magazine. Participating students will receive a certificate and $1,000 scholarship from the League, presented by the hometown mayor.

SOCIAL MEDIA FOR PUBLIC OFFICIALS

WWW.NJLMEF.ORG

The Educational Foundation's March, 30 event "Social Media for Public Officials" at the Prudential Center featured presentations that were video recorded by CDS Solutions and are now posted on the NJLM Educational Foundation web site www.njlmef.org. There are also PowerPoint presentations, and additional documents. They are at the top-left of the home page. We will continue to promote the availability of this great educational resource.

Thank you again for attending and please feel free to spread this information to your colleagues.

WEBINAR ON DEFEATED SCHOOL BUDGETS

-Details at the League web page

April 22, we co-sponsored an informative conference call with the New Jersey School Boards Association on how to handle defeated school budgets. Some 700 people participated.

You can listen to the recorded conference call. You can also join NJSBA's Facebook discussion page on defeated school budgets. And find more documents and answers at the League home page.

PEACE OFFICERS MEMORIAL DAY MAY 15

Since 1962, Peace Officers Memorial Day is held annually in the United States on May 15 in honor of federal, state and local officers killed or disabled in the line of duty. It is observed in conjunction with Police Week. While it is not a public holiday, many communities hold memorial services and fly the flag at half staff. A national memorial service is held in Washington DC on May 15.

League Publication: 2010 Selected Provisions: Municipal Personnel Policies $35 for municipal officials Includes sample policies covering essential topics such as Military Leave, Family Leave, Americans with Disabilities Act, Disciplinary Action and the Email, Internet and Electronic Privacy. Also includes up-to-date personnel-related law cases information. Click the title above for an order form.

Participating Mayors

2010 Louis Bay 2nd - Future Municipal Leaders Scholarship Competition

Our thanks to these mayors who submitted local students' entries for the scholarship competition. The 3 mayors submitting winning entries will be sent $1000 checks from the League to present to the students. The 3 winning essays will appear in the October issue of New Jersey Municipalities Magazine. All participating mayors will receive certificates which they can present to every local student that submitted an entry to the mayor's office.
