New Jersey Mayors' 2020 Legislative Priorities Survey

The League's Legislative team is your link to policy makers in Trenton. As your municipality's primary policy decision maker, your opinions on these issues is crucial to our efforts to represent you in the State Capital.

In his first act as League President, Hardwick Committeeman Jim Perry has directed the League to survey the State's mayors to identify their 5 legislative priorities going forward. President Perry intends to prioritize these top issues to develop consensus policy recommendations for presentation to State policy makers.

Advertiser Spotlight

The advertisement features the slogan 'Caring for our entire community.' in a bold, red, sans-serif font. Below the slogan, on the left, are the logos for Verizon and NJM Shares. On the right, there are two circular images: the first shows an elderly man in a wheelchair being assisted by a caregiver, and the second shows an elderly couple embracing. The background is a light gray gradient.

Caring for our entire community.
