- II. Police and Fire Contract Provisions – New Data Released

Municipal Clerks: Please forward to your Mayor, Governing Body and Department Heads.

To assist in providing guidance and information we have created a COVID-19 resource page. We will continue to update the page as we get pertinent information and include announcements in our Daily Updates.

The League's magazine, NJ Municipalities, is preparing its fall issues and is seeking editorial content.

NJ Municipalities is published monthly October through June. The circulation consists of New Jersey municipal officials and staff, state-level officials, and professionals interested in local government issues. Please write your articles with this audience in mind. We are interested in original articles focusing on New Jersey, on programs, or on ideas that would be of interest to New Jersey's municipal leaders. Commercial firms are also invited to submit feature articles.

For more information, visit www.njlm.org/magazine or email Managing Editor Amy Spiezio at aspiezio@njlm.org.

II. Police and Fire Contract Provisions – New Data Released

Are you getting ready to head into negotiations? The Police and Fire Labor Data Service provides resources tracking the trends in police and fire contract settlements. The second edition of the recent two part update is now available.

What is included?

Selected provisions and salary scales are provided in Microsoft Excel files, allowing you to easily search and sort through information as it best applies to your municipality. Included contract provisions include, but are not limited to: educational provisions, travel reimbursement, vacation and longevity schedules, and health benefits. Visit the League's website for the full list of provisions included.

This data was released in two editions, and this latest edition also includes the information that was released in the first edition. Data is included for 442 police departments and 56 fire departments.

The Police and Fire Labor Data Service is part of the League's Bureau of Municipal Information.
