I. NJLM 105th Annual Conference - Presented Virtually, November 16-20, 2020

To help you to prepare for your Annual Conference, presented virtually in 2020, we have prepared a series of emails, each of which will focus on a specific area of importance to municipal officials.

The sessions listed below are intended to provide elected officials timely updates on critical policy and administrative issues. This is a sampling of the slate of educational sessions available through Conference week. If you can't make it to all the sessions you want during Conference week, you can watch these sessions later as they will be recorded and available on-demand for registrants for one year.
