IV. Conference Connections

a. Hotel Booking System Open

Planning for an in-person 106th Annual League Conference this Nov. 16-18 in Atlantic City continues full speed ahead and the hotel booking system is open!

Take advantage of the full Conference experience by staying in Atlantic City for the entire three-day event. Review the official Housing Map & Rates, then make your reservations online or use the Universal Housing Form, which can be sent in via email, fax, or mail.

The deadline to use the Universal Housing Form is Oct. 8. Oct. 15 is the deadline to book housing online. Please review the Housing Map and Rates form for cancellation dates. If you have further housing questions, please contact AC Central Reservations at 800-643-0044.

b. Download Your Conference Planning Guide

Information for the Conference is beginning to flow. Start reading up now to be ready for this fall's event. The new and easy-to-read downloadable 2021 Conference Planner is a useful tool with a Save the Dates list, a rundown of registration fees, and hotel booking information. The piece also provides information about the health and safety efforts underway by the League and the Atlantic City Convention Center.

The 2021 Conference Planner was mailed to all of New Jersey's municipal clerks, but the document is useful for anyone considering attending the League Conference. Whether saved to your desktop or printed out and put in your planning folder, the Conference Planner is a reference sheet you can look to right through the Conference.

For a longer look at the Conference basics, please download the 2021 Conference Preview that ran in the June issue of NJ Municipalities magazine. The piece includes a preliminary exhibitors list (updated at the Conference site) as well as a preliminary event schedule.
