

Need to fill an open position?

Looking to place an ad for equipment for sale?

The New Jersey League of Municipalities website offers a Classified Ads section

Pages on our website are viewed over four million times each year. And our highly viewed classified page receives an average of over 67,000 visits each month. Take advantage of our website's popularity and give your classified advertisement maximum exposure!

Our affordable rates offer you the opportunity to get the word out to potential job candidates and buyers. We accept advertising concerning job openings, equipment for sale, and surplus land.

This service is open to municipalities, counties, and state agencies only.
