RE: New Jersey Municipalities Magazine: Article “You’re in Office – But Are You Leading?”

Dear Municipal Clerk.

The article will appear in the February edition of our award-winning magazine, New Jersey Municipalities. It was written by one of our State’s veteran municipal managers, Bob Casey. He has spent his entire career working with local elected officials, and we thought his observation and advice may be worth sharing.

With that in mind, we wanted to bring this article, “You’re in Office – But Are You Leading?” to your attention.

Consider sharing this piece with your governing body members.

We think they would appreciate your concern and consideration. And we think the information in this article might help them take the lead in achieving their goals.

Very truly yours,

William G. Dressel, Jr.
