RE: Educational Foundation Publishes "My Home Town"

Dear Mayor:

As President of the New Jersey League of Municipalities Educational Foundation Board of Trustees, I am truly pleased to announce the publication of a wonderful new book "My Home Town". This manuscript was authored by my friend and fellow League Past President, Mayor Jim Anzaldi of Clifton. It is meant for young readers and is intended to help them to appreciate the things that local government does and the people that make those good things happen.

You can take a look at "My Home Town" on the NJLM Education Foundation website, where we have posted it at <http://www.njslom.org/documents/my-hom-town-book.pdf>. We have used this paperback in conjunction with our 2014 Mayors Book Club. It is the latest component of our ongoing efforts to promote literacy and the love of learning in municipalities throughout our Home State. And if you are interested in a copy for yourself, they are available for Five ($5) Dollars.
