Re: Important Conference Sessions: Ethics

Dear Mayor:

In preparation for our 102nd Annual Conference, we would like to inform you of some of the sessions we've scheduled on specific subjects. This is the first of a series of letters designed for that purpose.

Citizen confidence in public officials and in political institutions is the foundation of civil order. That confidence erodes with even the appearance of a conflict of interests. Many of our Conference sessions, focused on other specific topics, will deal with potential conflicts and how to eliminate or avoid them in the course of your public duties. The following sessions will deal directly and in detail with this most important subject.

Date	Time	Session	Room
Wednesday, November 15th
	10:45 a.m.	Elected Officials Primer: Ethics	Room 417
	3:45 p.m.	Municipal Ethics Programs and the Local Finance Board (Produced in cooperation with the Arthur J. Holland Program on Ethics in Government at the Eagleton Institute of Politics)	Hall A

We hope that you will be able to participate at these ethics sessions, in November in Atlantic City.

For more information on these and other sessions, visit the League's website at www.njslom.org or 102nd Conference Session Schedule . You can also go to 2017 Conference CEUs for the latest listing of seminars offering Continuing Education Units. Also, be sure to read more about these sessions and the Conference in the October and November editions of our magazine, New Jersey Municipalities.

The 2017 Conference App will be available for download beginning October 4. Visit your device's App Store to download

Sincerely,

Michael Darcy, CAE Executive
