FROM THE PRESIDENT

Mayor Janice Kovach, Clinton Town

The 106th Annual League Conference is just around the corner and your League staff is working diligently on issues such as transportation and parking, hotel accommodations, exhibit booth space, education sessions, and major luncheon events. Our goal is to create the familiar blend of education, exhibits, and networking in a safe and welcoming environment.

You can begin your Conference planning process with details from the Preview available in the June issue of New Jersey Municipalities magazine and on the League Conference website. The website also has additional important information about the conference hotel reservation system and schedule of events.

In addition, clerks will receive a new and easy-to-reference Conference Planning Guide in the mail shortly. This replacement for the housing form mailing can also be downloaded from the Conference website. Conference Housing will be available June 1 via the League website. The League strives to make it possible for your staff to attend and get the most out of the Annual Conference.

As of August 1, municipal officials will be able to register for the conference online at our website. Be sure to take advantage of this easy way to register early for the 106th Annual League Conference. Full conference registration information will be sent to all Municipal Clerks during the first week of August.

The June issue of NJ Municipalities is now available and ushers in summer with a focus on Tourism's Recovery. From historic buildings to the Jersey Shore's beach towns, experts in local government share their insights on how they made it through the pandemic and lessons they are taking into the future. The June issue also looks at efforts from recreation departments around the state and how they pitched in and restructured to meet the needs of towns facing the pandemic in addition to Hanover's partnership with Wegman's grocery store to promote local trails and healthy living.

The League's partner, the NJ Healthcare Quality Institute's Mayors Wellness Healthy Towns were unveiled at Lt. Governor Sheila Oliver shared suggestion on how to celebrate New Jersey's newest holiday: Juneteenth (on June 19). Monthly informative reports including the benefits of down payment assistance program for municipalities in Finance Center, along with the latest from Gold Dome, Legislative Update, and Legal Q&A. A sample issue and subscription information are available at the magazine section of the NJLM website (www.njlm.org/magazine).

This begins the summer break for NJ Municipalities, but we'll be hard at work putting together information-packed editions for the fall. Do you have a success story about your municipality or an innovative idea that would benefit other communities? Want to share an opinion relating to an issue impacting local government in an Op-Ed column? Send them in for publication in the League's official magazine, NJ Municipalities. Issues are published monthly October through June. Editorial calendar and guidelines are available at www.njlm.org/magazine.
