President's 2023 Conference Welcome

Dear Conference Delegate:

Welcome to the 108th Annual Conference of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities. We are pleased to welcome you to another opportunity-filled Conference and eagerly anticipate seeing you in Atlantic City!

Looking at the world around us from the doors of our municipal buildings, we all face challenges and search for opportunities in the service of the public. The 108th Annual Conference looks at how municipal governments are the hub of communities, focusing on the important topics like public safety in everything from safe streets to cybersecurity; trends for a better future like electric vehicles and better cooperation with our fellow local governments, State, and federal units; and managing the perpetual dilemmas we all face.

The League Officers, our Executive Board, the League staff, and the leadership of our affiliate organizations have worked hard to create three-days of high-quality educational sessions and learning experiences that have been the hallmark of every Annual Conference for over a century.

We hope that 2023's Conference helps you enhance your knowledge and add a few new tools from the Exhibit Hall that will help you continue your critical work in the continued pandemic recovery and manage the uncertainties of the future.

We all appreciate the work you do throughout the year as you strive to build a better future and generously share your time and attention with your community out of love for your hometowns. On behalf of the League's Officers, Executive Board, and staff, we thank you for that. We also thank you for committing this week to learning as much as you can to make your hometowns the best that they can be.

Sincerely,

Raymond S. Heck, NJLM President
Mayor, Millstone Borough

League Stands By

Code of Conduct for 2023 Conference

This Code of Conduct outlines our expectations for all those who participate in League meetings and events, as well as the consequences for unacceptable behavior.

This policy applies to any “participant” at League of Municipalities (NJLM) events, including but not limited to staff, contractors, vendors, exhibitors, venue staff, members, presenters, and all attendees. We expect all participants to abide by this Code of Conduct in all venues at NJLM meetings and events, including ancillary events and official and unofficial social gatherings.

The League intends to maintain a welcoming professional atmosphere in all aspects of the Annual League Conference. To that end, conduct that violates this Code should not be tolerated by anyone who witnesses it, or is subjected to it.

Professional conduct includes using care in words that you choose. Harassment, even harassment that a person believes is a “joke,” is unacceptable behavior. Sexist, racist, and other exclusionary jokes are unacceptable and offensive to those around you. Excessive swearing and offensive jokes are not professional behavior and violate the League code of conduct. Retaliation for reporting harassment is a violation of the Code of Conduct.

Examples of Unacceptable Behaviors and Conduct:

- Intimidating, harassing, abusive, discriminatory, derogatory or demeaning speech or actions.
- Harmful or prejudicial comments or images related to gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, age, appearance, or other personal characteristics.
- Deliberate intimidation, stalking or following.
- Harassing photography or recording.
- Sustained disruption of talks or other events.
- Unwelcome and uninvited attention or contact, including unwelcome touching or groping.
- Assault.
- Real or implied threat of harm including physical, professional, or financial.
- Advocating for or encouraging any of the above behavior.

Participants engaging in unacceptable behavior are subject to responses deemed appropriate by the League including but not limited to: verbal warning, removal from NJLM events, prohibition from attending future events, notifying the offender’s employer. If you are subjected to, or witness such behavior, contact League staff. All reports are confidential to the extent permitted by law.

To Report Unacceptable Behavior – All Reports Are Confidential: During the Annual League Conference, contact the League at 609-695-3481. League Staff will direct you to a trained person who will assist you. Your report and any assistance provided will remain confidential to the extent permitted by law.
