New Jersey's over-reliance on regressive property taxes to fund local needs can be traced to a history of municipal revenues being diverted. There was once a time when local services were funded by many sources beside the regressive property tax. To learn how and when municipal revenue sources were diverted visit njslom.org/letters/Property\_Tax\_Facts111414.html
