

Janice S. Mironov, Mayor, East Windsor; League Past President

Mayor Janice S. Mironov has served as Mayor of East Windsor Township for the past consecutive 22 years and has a fiscally conservative record of keeping the municipal tax rate low, with no tax increases in the past six years, maintaining low debt levels, and pro-actively and successfully obtaining grants and private support to fund major programs and activities for East Windsor. At the same time, the Township has continued to provide high-quality services through its extraordinary public works department, capable dedicated police department, construction officials, recreation department, and senior services.

Under Mayor Mironov's pro-active leadership, numerous new stores and major commercial projects and pharma companies, generating jobs and revenue, have revitalized the Route 130 and Turnpike areas. Additionally, Mayor Mironov is equally proud of the many Township environmental initiatives, including increasing preserved open space and preserving a current total of 17 farms including the landmark Lee Turkey Farm, launching a community garden, a police/court building solar array, expanded recycling programs, and Sustainable Jersey "Green" Silver certification and re-certification. Recreational opportunities have grown with new parks and greatly expanded pathways throughout the Township. The Mayor was instrumental in the construction of a new state-of-the-art Senior Center using donations and grants, and the Township continues to expand programs for seniors. East Windsor in partnership with Womenspace pioneered its first Domestic Violence Victim Response Team which became a state model.

Mayor Mironov has received many community awards and recognitions. She is a member of the Township Planning Board, Council liaison to the Township Economic Development Committee and Clean Communities Advisory Committee, member of the East Windsor Municipal Alliance for the Prevention of Substance Abuse, and a Trustee of East Windsor Green Space, Inc. She also hosts a live call-in local cable program, "Spotlight East Windsor."

In addition to her leadership in East Windsor, Mayor Mironov is also active on the statewide level, having served as President of the New Jersey League of Municipalities. She is also a very active and engaged member of the League's various committees. Mayor Mironov is a Vice President of the New Jersey Conference of Mayors and in 2017 received the New Jersey Conference of Mayors "Excellence in Governance" award. She also serves as Chairperson of the Mercer County Democratic Committee and in 2017 was the first recipient of the Eileen Thornton Award from the Mercer County Federation of Democratic Women. Mayor Mironov is also a member of the NJ Highway Traffic Safety Policy Advisory Committee and NJ Shares.

Professional Career: Professionally, during her career, in addition to private law practice, she has been a New Jersey Deputy Attorney General, New Jersey State Parole Board Member, and Assistant Director in New Jersey Department of Treasury.

Education: Raised and educated in public schools in Bergen County, New Jersey, Mayor Mironov received her B.A. in political science from Wellesley College in Wellesley, Massachusetts and earned her law degree (J.D.) with honors from the National Law Center at George Washington University in Washington D.C.
