Trenton, NJ 08608

Dear Friends,

It is my distinct pleasure to extend to you my congratulations on celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities. I present to you this letter of Special Congressional Recognition appreciating your dedication to promoting cooperation amongst municipal government, and good self-governance in our State of New Jersey.

As a former Mayor myself, I know that the League is vital in uniting the common interests of the communities and municipalities of New Jersey, and as such has carried out the important task of preserving and promoting grass roots democracy within our state. The fact that the New Jersey State League of Municipalities has reached the century mark is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its members and supporters. Your noble efforts have fostered a spirit of cooperation that transcends district lines, and has ensured that the voices of our communities have an outlet from which they may be heard. You should be proud of all your achievements, and never waver in the conviction that the League is promoting the greater good.

The League has long been recognized as the spokesman for local government and its voice commands respect. This is a special occasion and you should be proud of your rich history and all that you do to promote the interests of those in our great state. I am sure the success of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities will continue long into the future. Again, congratulations! Here's to the next 100 years!

Sincerely,
